

Message of Fr. Provincial Superior...

The Lord calls us for various tasks and responsibilities, and he trusts us though we are weak human beings. What is important always is to say “yes” to the Lord who calls us.

As I begin my term of office as the Provincial Superior of the OMI Province of Colombo, I am thankful to the Lord who has kept His trust on me. I am thankful also to my brother Oblates for placing confidence in me. I believe that the relationships are always built on trust and confidence.

In my inaugural speech given on the 21st of May 2020 at De Mazenod House, Colombo 15, I have already spoken about my vision for the Province. The points I have elaborated in that long speech become priorities of my tenure as the Provincial.

If I am to give a summary of that speech:

- I would try to animate the members of the Province by many visits, one to one relationships, and regular accompaniments. In this regard, we have already established an animation team. Its members would go around the province, meeting each one of you personally. I emphasize very much on the need of a profound spirituality which is a result of our personal and living relationship with the Lord. I stress the need of quality time that one takes personally to be with the Lord, of the time the members of the community spend together before the Lord in prayer, of the devotion to the Holy Eucharist as well as the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, of periodic and regular confession and of the spiritual direction etc. Let these spiritual exercises help us to mature ourselves in our relationship with the Lord.
- Let us continue to see one another as one’s own brother, and never as an enemy or a threat. Let us learn to respect each other. Let us increase brotherliness by our genuine concern for each other. Let us get rid of group, clique, and club mentality.
- We have already formed a team to do the recruitment ministry, taking it as a priority. Let each one of us become more interested in promoting candidates to Oblate religious and priestly way of life. Let us all pray for our candidates in the formation houses. I invite you to visit houses of formation to come to know the candidates and make known yourself to them. Speak to them about your mission and apostolate and perhaps share your personal life.

- According to the Constitution number 49, in the Province the formation ministry is a special responsibility of the Provincial. Hence, I shall visit all the formation houses regularly and when it is possible shall meet every student personally. We affirm the need to form and train good formators who are able to co-journey with the candidates.
- There must be certain disciplinary rules in the Province, and I trust that you all will cooperate with me to uphold and maintain those rules so that there will be order and discipline in the Province.
- I will try to visit all of you in your work-place and spend, if possible, couple of days with you. As I write this message, I have already begun my visitations, first visiting our elders and the sick members at Marian Grove, Kohuwala. I also visited the Juniorate at Kohuwala, and met the staff fathers. In the coming few weeks, I hope to visit Kuchchaveli mission, Kokkilai, Rajabima, and to meet the members of the Anuradhapura District, and Frs. Rex Kulas and Marcelliar at Madhu Shrine where they serve.
- We already had four days of Council meeting, and we have already initiated formulating statements of Vision–Mission for each Center and the plans for the future. We need your valuable ideas in this regard. We shall first draw up a vision- Mission Statement for the mission at Subaseth Gedara, Buttala, which is one of our main ministries. We shall call all the Oblates, served in this Center for a discussion and study. We shall hold our first meeting at the tomb of Fr. Michael Rodrigo OMI, at Subaseth Gedara. Likewise, for each of the centers we shall draw up a very clear Vision–Mission and a job description for every superior or director.

On the day of my installation itself someone inquired from me whether we intend to have a Provincial Congress. My response to him, now to you as well, is - what is more important at the moment is to implement the recommendations of the 2018 Congress, held at Tewatte, than to have congresses as a formality producing redundant documents and literature. Hence, for my administration the recommendations of the 2018 Congress become the working tool. The Congress of 2018 clustered the Oblate ministries, and the previous administration of the Province appointed a Councilor each to be in charge of a cluster. The council members of the present Administration have already shared the responsibilities (Portfolios) among themselves, and I have mandated them all full powers to work with you in each cluster. Respecting the recommendations of the Congress 2018, we shall have periodic evaluations of each cluster and ministry in the light of the Vision–Mission Statement of each cluster.

It was recommended at the 2018 Congress to shift OHIL ministry to Polwatte Center, and we have begun working on that.

Again, as recommended by the Congress 2018, we have already decided to appoint a Vicar Provincial, and I have initiated discussions with possible candidates.

The 2018 Congress has recommended opening a school in a rural area, and we must be thankful and grateful to the previous Administration for actualizing that recommendation by opening the De Mazenod College at Rajabima, Anuradhapura, for the very poor and marginalized children. The school has initially begun with 37 students, and at the moment there are 96 students of whom majority are Buddhists. Fr. Dileepa Jayamaha is the Principal of the college and Fr. Shane Winston De Rosairo is the deputy principal and the dean of studies. Fr. Winston concentrates on teacher training activities too. Since the Rajabima center is not spacious enough for the increasing number of children, thanks to the previous Administration, we own a land adjoining the Anuradhapura-Kurunagala Road for the construction of a school building. It would be one of the priorities of the present Administration, and we intend to work on it. We sincerely thank the Rajabima Oblate community for their hard work.

The recommendations of the 2018 Congress bestow a great responsibility on me as the Provincial Superior towards the Delegations belonging to our Province. As recommended by the Congress, frequent visits to Delegations, done by the Provincial or by his delegate are a must. I have already started to correspond with every member of each delegation, and thus I try to communicate with them to keep contact. There is the need to send new members to the Delegations too.

Summing up my first letter to you, may I invite you dear brother Oblates to continue to love and respect one another. Let us consider the other as our own brother. Let us maintain mutual support and be close to those who are weak and those who go through crises in life. Let us work together and work hard to create a better Province, better delegation for the future members as well.

May our Blessed Mother continue to intercede on our behalf before the Lord! May our saintly Founder continue to inspire us with his living charism! May God bless you.

be saints. They must walk courageously
along the same paths trodden by so many before them: Apostolic Labourers for the Gospel...”

Preface

The Installation of the New Provincial Administration
